Education

TRAV hosted two educational days in 2024. Both workshops provided high-quality and interesting information to the attendees.

The education workshop combined with TRAV's annual meeting was held at Blue Ridge Community College on February 17, provided three continuing education units (CE), and covered topics including:

- Positioning your Center for Success: A discussion on TRAV, PATH and the CTRI process and how it affects your center -- Jenny Spain and Lissa Ramsepaul
- Strategies for Success -- Kaiti Otte, OTR
- Therapeutic Riding Assessment for Adults and Children -- Dr. Cheryl Coughlin, OTD, OTR/L

The second education day was held on August 17 at Trillium Farm in Purcellville VA. It provided four CEs and covered topics including:

- Exploring Grief with Assisted Learning -- Adrienne Freeland, CTRI
- Navicular -- Melinda Freckleton, DVM
- Equine Liability presented -- Cliff Williamson, Executive Director for the Virginia Agribusiness Council

Scholarship Report

TRAV offers a number of scholarships that provide financial assistance to support instructor certification, attendance at conferences, obtaining continuing education credits and raising public awareness. In 2024 TRAV one member pursued instructor certification with support from a TRAV scholarship. All members in good standing are eligible to apply for a TRAV scholarship.
